

KNIGHTS CORNER

April 2, 2023

St. Charles Council #2084

The world cannot fathom it: Victory comes through pain, suffering, torture, death. We proclaim as Lord and Savior Jesus, true God who loved us so much that he took on our human nature, not as a valiant, triumphant army leader but a humble carpenter-turned-preacher. The world rejected Him then, the world rejects Him now. Arrested on false charges, condemned by unjust authorities, tortured by ruthless soldiers, nailed to a crossbeam and put on public display while he died. All for us. All to take away our sins. Not because He had to, but because He wanted to. That is a love so powerful, we cannot even imagine it. But we can certainly worship it. The Knights of Columbus encourage you to attend Good Friday services, to take in all that our Lord did for love of us, to worship and thank Him, and to beg for his mercy on us today.

We hope to see you there, 3 p.m. Friday at St. Charles Church in Greenville.
