St. Charles Council #2084

As we begin our journey of Holy Week and Lent draws to a close, we want to thank everyone who attended and helped with the Fish Fries and our MI Drive this week. I also want to thank the 5+ men so far who answered the call to join our council this Lenten season. We'll be looking to hold an exemplification soon so if you were thinking about it this Lent, it's not too late to join this group and come in with a bunch of excited brother Knights.

Holy Week, the Triduum, and the Easter season are very important but a very busy and exciting time for us as Catholics. I know personally, though, the other aspects of my life still go on, and it can be tempting not to give this coming week the attention or focus it deserves. When that happens I try to put myself in the shoes of the early disciples. As we listen to the readings and the story this week I think about their mind set. I'm sure they went through the range of emotions: hopeful and joyous on Palm Sunday, anxious and scared on Holy Thursday, and then grieving and terrified on Good Friday, and of course ecstatic and awestruck after Easter. But I bet if I talked with one of those disciples on any one of those days the last thing on their mind was what they had going in two weeks. The events that happened this week were life altering for them and if we stop and think about it they were, and are, life altering for us as well.
